Invitation

Warm Invitation to IAP Neocon 2025

We are thrilled to invite you to the 16th Annual Conference of the IAP Neonatology Chapter – IAP Neocon 2025, taking place from 22nd to 24th August 2025 at Hotel The Centrum, Lucknow – the city of tehzeeb (grace), pehchaan (identity), and legendary hospitality.

Why Lucknow?

This historic city, the abode of Lord Laxmana (Lakshmanpur of the Ramayana), and named after him, is where tradition meets modernity. Just as Laxmana stood as a guardian of excellence, neonatologists like you uphold the sacred duty of nurturing new life. Lucknow, with its timeless charm, royal heritage, and world-famous kebabs, provides the perfect backdrop for an event dedicated to advancing neonatal care with wisdom and compassion.

Why Attend?

Learn from Legends: Engage with renowned global speakers in neonatology, sharing breakthroughs that redefine care for the tiniest lives.

Science & Soul: From cutting-edge research to ethical dilemmas, the agenda balances innovation with humanity – much like Lucknow itself.

Beyond the conference, lose yourself in the grandeur of the Rumi Darwaza, the flavours of Tunday Kababi, and the serenity of the Gomti River – because great minds deserve inspiration beyond the lecture hall.

Delegates will also have the opportunity to visit the newly inaugurated Ram Darbar at Shri Ram Janmbhoomi Temple in Ayodhya, following the Pran Pratishtha of newly consecrated deities.

Your presence will elevate this gathering, just as Laxmana's presence fortified Ayodhya. Join us to celebrate life, knowledge, and the future of neonatology in a city that celebrates legacy.
